DISTRICT CONFERENCE.—Chairman Ellyson, of the State democratic committee, Messrs. L. Marbury, of Alexandria; C. S. Triplett, of Culpeper; C. P. Janney, and Wm. Kean (proxy for Mr. W. E. Bibb, of Louisiana), of the district committee, and Mr. J. F. Kixey, democratic nominee for Congress, and the chairmen of the various county committees in the district, met in the office of Mr. L. Marbury in this city today. There were present also these Messrs. J. T. Sweeney, W. H. Smith, K. Kemper and M. B. Harlow, of this city; C. E. Graham, of the county; J. M. Love, J. E. Willard and F. W. Richardson, of Fairfax; J. B. T. Thornton, W. E. Lipscomb and J. P. Leachman, of Prince William; J. M. Beckham, of Culpeper; C. M. White and G. Gaines, of Fauquier; W. J. Jacobs, of Stafford; B. F. Head, of Loudoun, and others.

Mr. Marbury called the meeting to order, and stated that its object was to have a conference between the State chairman, the district committee and the county chairmen in reference to the canvass and to receive reports of what had been done, &c. He then asked Chairman Ellyson to preside.

Mr. Ellyson on taking the chair said the most important thing to be attended to was to see that the voters knew how to prepare their ballots on election day. He suggested that there be not less than two men at each voting place who shall first be taught how to prepare their ballots and who shall then see that every voter is likewise instructed. He then explained the election law and suggested that the democratic clubs take up the matter of instructing the voters concerning their ballots.

He said the republicans were better informed and better organized than ever before, but he said he knew the democrats had a clear majority in the State, and he favored a fair election. He believed the elections in Virginia were conducted as fairly as those held in any State in the union, and predicted a large majority for Bryan and Sewall.

The chairman of the various city and county committees were subsequently called for reports. All responded and their statements were very satisfactory. Clubs had been formed and the organizations generally were shown to be effective and everything seemed promising. Bolters were few and their numbers would be more than offset by accessions from republicans and populists.

Mr. Rixey gave accounts of visits he had recently made in all the counties in the district. He corroborated what had been said by the various chairmen. He said, however, extra exertions should be made in Stafford and King George, and he intended spending the most of next week in those counties.

It was generally concluded that matters now stand the district would give at least four thousand majority.

An executive session of the committee was held previous to adjournment. After the doors were opened Mr. Ellyson made an address in which he reiterated that Virginia would give a larger democratic majority than ever known.

POLICE COURT.—The following cases were disposed of last night:
 W. D. Chichester, charged with drunkenness and cruelty to his family, was dismissed, his wife having withdrawn the charge. He took an oath that he would abstain from the use of intoxicants as long as he lives.
 Catherine Timbers, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50.

John Williams, colored, charged with assaulting a white youth named Hansborough, was dismissed, it appearing that the complainant brought on the trouble.

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

The deceased had been an invalid during half of his life, having been seriously injured at the fire on King street November 17, 1855, at which seven men were killed. Some years later he was scalded by an explosion in a distillery. He ever enjoyed the respect of his white acquaintances.

HANGED IN EFFIGY.—Secretary Morton was hanged in effigy at the southeast corner of King and Washington streets last night. The police discovered the effigy about 1:30 o'clock this morning. Pinned on its back was a card, with the inscription: "Secretary Morton! A Traitor to His Party. Compliments of Alexandria Democracy."

The officers at first took it for a real body. Jerry Sims, colored, a member of the chain gang, was directed by Officer Ticer to remove the effigy. This morning Sims at first supposed it was the body of a suicide and was loth to touch it. He finally summoned courage to ascend the telegraph pole and bring it down. Some of the garments on the man of straw he appropriated and donned.

STRUCK BY A POLICEMAN.—Mr. R. T. Cook, of this city, last night attended the joint discourse in Washington between Messrs. Hutchins and Davis. As the hall was much crowded Mr. Cook clambered upon one of the iron supports of the roof and was told in a most insulting manner by a negro policeman to come down. As he did not obey the command as promptly as the negro thought he should the latter struck Mr. Cook on the leg with his stick. The affair caused some excitement in the hall, and a number of friends surrounded Mr. Cook and volunteered to assist in having the negro removed for his unprovoked conduct. Mr. Cook will prefer charges against the man.
